BARROOM ON WEST MARKET?

APPLICATION FOR LICENSE WILL BE GRANTED.

Mr. Barker Wants to sell at 108-Southsiders Granted the Privilege of Using a Pump if They Put It In—City Takes Stock in Guilford Battle Ground Company.

All members of the Board of Aldermen were present at the regular meeting last night except Joyner and Boyd.

Major Joseph M. Morehead appeared and asked the board to take stock in the Battle Ground Company to the extent of $300. On motion of Alderman Hunter, the Mayor, in the name of the city was authorized to subscribe for twelve shares of stock at $25 each.

Mr. C. G. Wright, attorney, appeared in behalf of Mr. A. B. Willis, a renter of a stall in the city market, and asked that he either be charged a less rent, on account of the fact that he sold only fish, or make the rent rate higher for stalls in which both beef and fish are sold. An ordinance was passed making it unlawful for both fish and beef to be sold in one stall.

Alderman Hunter stated, that the dispensary board desired to have a final settlement with the city. Denny moved that a committee be appointed to audit the accounts of the dispensary board and make settlement, which motion was carried.

Alderman Denny, chairman of the street committee stated that a new pump was needed on South Elm street. a committee be appointed to audit the south of the railroad, and in view of the fact that the city would soon be selling water, he desired instruction as to whether to put in a pump or not. Sergeant moved that the chairman of the street committee notify Mr. S. E. Hudson, near whose store the pump is, that if the citizens of that section of town wish to use water from this well, they should put in a pump at their own expense. Motion was carried.

Sergeant offered a resolution condemning certain lands for street purposes on West Lee street, which resolution was passed. On motion of Alderman Love G. Will Armfield was selected on the part of the city as arbitrator.

Alderman Love moved that the city attorney prepare a notice to be served on the Southern Railway Company ordering it to put down crossing on Spring street. Carried.

Alderman Scott moved, which motion was carried, that the Steamer Company's hall be re-papered.

Denny stated that the Greensboro Security and Investment Company wished to tender to the city of Greensboro Tate street, which had been graded and put in good shape, and that a deed would be given the city. The street was accepted.

Denny reported that he had sold, since August last, $87.25 worth of sweepings from the streets.

John Barker filed an application to sell liquor at his store, 108 West Market. Application went over two weeks, under rule.

Board will meet in adjourned meeting next Friday night.

Col. J. S. Carr's Very Generous Offer.

Durham Sun.

Col. J. S. Carr has agreed to give $10 to every public school in Durham county that raises $10 outside of the six already provided for by under the recent law. This, with the offer of the county board, will insure to each school $30 that will raise $10.

This is a most generous offer of Col. Carr, and we hope that every public school in the county will take advantage of it.

Solicitor A. L. Brooks left this afternoon, for Reidsville to spend Sunday with Mrs. Brooks, who is visiting relatives there. From there Mr. Brooks will go to Roxboro to attend court.

TRINITY-GUILFORD GAME.

A Writer Makes Some Observations Suggested Thereby.

To the Editor of The Telegram: Here are two items which tell their own story:

1. (From the preamble to the resolution passed and published by Guilford College Athletic Association.)

"Whereas, since our games with Oak Ridge Institute have not resulted in the same pleasant way that has characterized games with other institutions, etc."

2. (From the Greensboro Telegram's report of the game between Guilford and one of the "other institutions" April 9th.)

"It is a pity that the disagreements which are fast going to make such contests unpopular were there in such large numbers. * * * The dispute resulted in a long delay and left the field and part of the players dressed."

Mr. Editor, in the series of resolutions of which the above is a part as quoted from memory there was an effort on the part of Guilford College to throw blame upon Oak Ridge as being contentious. Whenever such effort is made by one institution to throw obloquy upon another something is sure to happen to set things right before the public.

The games Oak Ridge has played at Greensboro and elsewhere with other teams, and with Guilford with one or two exceptions, have been unusually pleasant and free from contentions, and unpleasantness. I do not recall a single game with Horner, Trinity, A. & M. College, Davidson, Bingham, the University or Wake Forest that was attended with anything unpleasant. Oak Ridge has never taken its team off of any field, though I do not say that there are not times when such things are justifiable. Where there is a dispute the public cannot always locate the blame for the trouble and generally it is immaterial to it.

May I be allowed, however, to say that games are now much freer from disputes and delays than formerly and that the quotation from the Telegram is in this regard misleading. The new North Carolina Association rules if strictly carried out, would leave little room for captious or other criticism. The umpire by those rules must be disinterested and his decisions should be sharp and final.

Fearful Mine Disaster.

Buena Vista, Cal., April 13.—It is feared the death list resulting from the great avalanche at Taylor Park, will reach two hundred. The scene of disaster is forty miles from here. Details are meagre. The avalanche came down the Italian mountain, carrying everything before it. In mines on the mountain side three hundred miners were employed at the time. Their shanties were directly in the avalanche's path and were swept away.

For North Carolina—Rain tonight and Sunday, east winds and becoming brisk and possibly high.

Greensboro—Highest temperature past twenty-four hours ending eight o'clock this morning 63, lowest 43.

Lost Gold Found.

Bremen, April 13.—The mystery of the theft of sixty thousand dollars in gold bars from the specie room of the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse, was solved by the discovery of gold hidden away in the second cabin of the state room by the ships cleaners. The thieves evidently intended to remove the booty at a later time.

This morning Dr. E. L. Stamey received a telegram to meet train No. 36 from the South, that a sick man was on board and needed attention. When the train arrived, the sick man proved to be Mr. W. L. Ferrel, of Winston, agent at that place for the American Tobacco Company, but he was not seriously ill.

INJUSTICE IN RAILROAD RATES

A WRITER MAKES OUT A CASE WHERE THIS CITY IS HURT.

Charlotte is Able to Buy in Baltimore. Ship to Charlotte and Back to Greensboro and Sell Here Cheaper Than Greensboro Can Buy at the Same Price in Baltimore, Ship Direct Here and Sell.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

Seeing Mr. C. W. Jennings, our wholesale fruit dealer, selling large quantities of bananas at auction today, an inquiry as to the reason therefor elicited the following facts which the people of Greensboro may well take to heart:

For a long time Mr. Jennings has pleaded with the railroad company for a reasonable rate on bananas from unloading ports to Greensboro, but each appeal seemed only to draw the screw tighter. It was, however, revealed that by shipping to Richmond, Va., from Baltimore and re-shipping to Greensboro there would be a saving of $18.00 on a minimum car load, and Mr. Jennings ordered the next car that way but the reply came that it was against the ruling of the railroad companies to allow that and he had to pay $128 on 20,000 pounds from Baltimore to Greensboro as usual, or $77 on 10,000 pounds.

These rates enabled Charlotte, N. C. to buy in Baltimore at same price, ship to Charlotte and back to Greensboro and sell for less money than they could be sold, shipped direct from Baltimore to Greensboro, and Mr. Jennings was told by the Charlotte shipper that they enjoyed a rate of 56c per hundred pounds, while Greensboro has had to pay 64 per hundred pounds for more than two years. He also demonstrated that he could ship 106 bunches in a car without packing at a local rate class number 2. While Greensboro has been compelled to pack as many as 200 bunches, all going in one car, to one firm from Greensboro to Winston, N. C., and compelled to pack 100 bunches for High Point or pay 1½ first class freight.

Charlotte, N. C., taking advantage of the great favors shown them on the close iron clad rules thrown around Greensboro has been enabled more than once to flood our market with their surplus by making Greensboro a dumping ground, and today Mr. Jennings is forced to sacrifice his stock at auction because one of these unsuspected shipments dropped in just as he had prepared ripe stock to supply the markets usual demand.

It is further more developed that when Mr. Chralotteddealer was found to be peddling his bananas around town that he was called on for license by the city authorities of Greensboro and he took refuge under license of a retail fruit dealer and candy dealer, while he sold his goods from a very different part of town from which the fruit dealer's store stood, and a large portion of the bananas were sold by peddling around the town which calls for a specified license of about $100.

If goods can be sold that way, why not let Jennings or any other man take license out for doing business in Greensboro and all dealers sell under his license. It looks like any officer of the city of Greensboro could see that such a precedent would work disaster to the municipal treasury of Greensboro. A merchant pays his license for protection, and under these circumstances he does not get protection—then why have any license at all? The above are facts which Mr. C. W. Jennings is able to substantiate.

CITIZEN.

Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Minnie Gorrell, after which the question of the public library was enthusiastically discussed—the club voting to be responsible for $100. As a fitting close to so pleasant a meeting Miss Gorrell sang "Good Bye Sweet Day." The club meets with Miss McDonald April 26th. Those present were Mesdames Goolsby, Copeland, Peter Yates, Cone, Price, Carrie Yates, Whitsett, Misses Petty, McDonald, and Applewhite.

Twin Hen Eggs.

Dr. McIlhenny, proprietor of the Southside pharmacy, has in his show case an egg that is a curiosity. The egg is a double one, has two separate shells about an inch apart, and connected together with a ligament, reminding one of the Siamese twins. The shells are soft in some places, and in others hard. One of the eggs is somewhat smaller than an ordinary hen egg while the other is larger.

Mr. McIlhenny says that this is the third time that this same hen has laid eggs of a similar character, but that this is the first time that both of the eggs and the ligament have been preserved intact.

Funeral of an Infant.

Funeral services were conducted over the remains of little Dorothy, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Marvin Carr, an accident of whose death at the home of her parents in Waynesville, appeared in The Telegram Thursday, were conducted this morning from the residence of Dr. Dred Peacock by Rev. S. B. Turrentine. The remains were interred in Greene Hill cemetery.

Very respectfully yours, MRS. HENRY PERRY, State Secretary. Henderson, N. C. April 10.

WENT BACK WITHOUT THEM

AN IOWA SHERIFF FAILS TO GET GOLD BRICK MEN.

Come With a Requisition from the Governor of Iowa, Honored by the Governor of North Carolina, but Still Went Back Empty Handed.

Sheriff B. F. Shutts of Ottumwa, Iowa, came all the way from that State with requisition papers for Thompson, the old miner, with a requisition from the Governor of his state. He came by Raleigh yesterday and got Governor Aycock to sign the paper. But he left on the noon train for home today without his man. Thompson is wanted out there for cheating an old farmer out of $7,000. The sheriff came here at the instance of Norris, the detective.

Sheriff Jordan this morning let Governor Aycock know that he had a dead case here against the men, and the Governor then instructed him not to honor the requisition. The men will be tried here without a doubt.

NO. 1. PROPHETIC PROLOGUE.

BARITONE SOLO.

Who is this that cometh from Edom—
With dyed garments from Bozrah?—
He that is glorious in his apparel Travelling in the greatness of His strength?
He that speaketh in righteousness,
Mighty to save!—for he said:
"Surely, surely they are my people."

In all their affliction he was afflicted,
In His love and His pity He redeemed them.
He was cut off out of the land of the living.
For our transgressions was He stricken
As a lamb to the slaughter is brought,
And as a sheep before her shearers is dumb,
So opened He not His mouth.

Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise Him,
And to put Him to grief;
That by His stripes we might be healed.

NO. 2. THE EVE OF THE SABBATH.

(Friday Night.)

LAMENTATION OF THE WOMEN.

And the women also, which came from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how His body was laid.

And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the Sabbath-day according to the commandment.

Now within the tomb He lies:
Will our Lord indeed arise?
To His promise hold we fast, Faithful we from first to last.
"Last at the Cross" we women were
Let us reach first the sepulchre.

Kyrie eleison!
Christie eleison!

When the Sabbath-day shall end,
To His tomb we'll early wend;
There to weep and there to see If our Lord may risen be,
"Last at the Cross" we women were,
Let us reach first the sepulchre.

Christie eleison.

NO. 3. THE NIGHT WATCH.

(Saturday.)

CHORUS OF MEN.

The next day there came unto Pilate the chief-priests and the Pharisees, and said unto him:

Sir, we remember that that decel-ver said while he was yet alive:
"After three days I will rise again from the dead."

Command thou, therefore, we beseech thee, that the tomb be made sure against the third day, lest his disciples come by night and steal him away, and say unto the people, "he is risen from the dead!" So shall the last error be worse than the first.

PILATE.

Even in death these men their victim dread.
By dreams of him my wife afflicted was
And I, myself, most deeply stirred in heart.

The deed is done!—I can, but grant their plea;
But I am innocent—am innocent
Of the blood of this just man.
Now go your way! Ye have your watch!
Make the sepulchre sure as you can!

CHORUS.

So they went together, the chief-priests and the rulers, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

NO. 4. THE EASTER DAWN.

(Sunday.)

DUO.—SOPRANO AND ALTO.

As it began to dawn towards the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.

CHORUS.

And behold there came a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, his raiment white as snow, and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered, and said
unto the women:

TENOR SOLO.

Fear not ye! for I know ye seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for He is risen, as He said.
Come see the place wherethe Lord lay:
and go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead, and behold, he goeth before you into Galilee.
There shall ye see Him.

Lo, I have told you!

CHORUS

And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy;
and did run to bring the disciples word.

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Christ is risen as he said!

NO. 5. REAPPEARANCE.

Sunday Night

WOMEN'S VOICES.

And the same day at evening, as the disciples were assembled:

MEN'S VOICES.

The doors being shut for fear of the Jews:

WOMEN'S VOICES.

Behold, Jesus Himself came and stood in the midst of them, and said:

THE WORDS OF JESUS.

Peace be unto you!

All power is given to me in heaven and on earth. As my Father has sent me, even so send I you.

But tarry ye here in Jerusalem, until ye be endowed with power from on high. Then shall ye go unto all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature; baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Peace, my peace I give to you.

Congregation rise.

"MISSIONARY CHANT."

Tune by CHARLES ZEUNER, 1835.

Words by B. H. DRAPER, 1805.

CONGREGATION AND CHOIR.

Ye Christian heralds, go proclaim Salvation in Emanuel's name;
To distant climes the tidings bear,
And plant the rose of Sharon there.

SATURDAY, APRIL 13.

Dr. Burkley, the editor of the New York Christian Advocate, is quoted as saying that "Christian Science is the most subtle form of heresy the church has had to encounter since the third century. The atheism of Ingersoll is not to be more depreciated than this heresy."

We are inclined to think the doctor is unduly alarmed. Christian science is only one of the thousand vagaries with sections of the public mind employs itself from time to time. It will wear out after a while, like other fads.

AGREE TO PRESERVE GAME.

European Nations Interested in Africa Have a Compact to Protect Animals.

An act of great importance to all those who are interested in preserving from extermination the wild animals of the world was recently taken by representatives of the various European powers that control territory in Africa, by which the larger portion of that continent becomes, to all intents and purposes, a vast game preserve. All game, both great and small, is in danger of disappearing before the persistence of sportsmen and of the gatherers of hides and ivory.

Africa is still rich in animals, birds and fishes, and by placing certain restrictions upon their destruction many species that would otherwise be exterminated may be fostered and perpetuated. In London a convention was signed by the diplomatic representatives of Great Britain, Germany, Spain, Belgium, France, Italy and Portugal for the protection of the wild animals, birds and fishes of Africa, which convention, after being ratified by the powers, is to remain in force for 15 years. By thus acting in concert the European nations who are most interested in Africa, through their extensive colonial possessions, have formed themselves into a powerful game protective association, with jurisdiction over the most extensive game preserve in the world.

The area over which the provisions of the convention are to apply includes all that portion of the dark continent extending from the twentieth parallel of north latitude to the southern line of the German possessions in southwestern Africa, and from the Atlantic ocean to the Indian ocean and the Red sea.

Under the terms of the convention the hunting and destruction of vultures, secretary birds, owls, giraffes, gorillas, chimpanzees, mountain zebras, wild asses, white-tailed gnus, elands and the little Librarian hippopotamus is prohibited. The young of certain animals, including the elephant, rhinoceros, hippopotamus, zebra, antelope, gazelle, ibex and chevron, are protected, and also the same species when accompanied by their young.

Particular emphasis is laid on the protection of young elephants, and all elephants' tusks weighing less than 20 pounds are to be confiscated by the government if the animal was killed after the convention went into effect. A limited number of lions, leopards, hyenas, otters, baboons and other harmless monkeys, large birds of prey, crocodiles, poisonous snakes and pythons may be killed.

Having and Giving.

In Sussex, England, a man whose desire to get and to keep is unduly developed is not called "grasping," he is spoken of as a "very having man." There, as elsewhere, a "having" man is born to his title; when he sets out to acquire it he has some such experience as that which befell a western congressman, now deceased. The congressman was a very generous giver, so generous, indeed, that his friends were always urging him to keep his gifts and donations down to a certain limit. At length he seemed to realize that importance of retrenchment, and announced that he was going to turn over a new leaf, and not give away more than $1,000 a month. Two months later the friend to whom he made the announcement met him and asked, with interest: "Well, how are you making out?" "I began well," the congressman replied, "and if I hadn't given an old friend of mine who had been having hard luck $10,000 last month I am sure I should have kept within the limit."—Yonkers' Companion.

THE TURN OF THE TIDE.

You may fondle your fame, like a hunter his game,
And exult in the roar and the rattle,
While the multitudes shout and the cannon blaze out.

The praise of the victor in battle;
But the victor will pine when the shoutings subside,
And another will shine at the turn of the tide.

You may garner your gain, like a farmer his grain,
And boast of your bonds and your money;

You may gather your wealth by struggle or stealth,
As gathers the bee its honey;
But your honey will pall in the heat of your pride,
And turn into gall at the turn of the tide.

You may subjugate men, as swine to the pen
By the rod of the tyrant are driven;
You may flourish the whip with a merciless grip,
While force to your fingers is given;

But your fingers will fall, and the men you deride
Will flourish the fall at the turn of the tide.

You may prosper by wrong, as tyrants do, long,
And rule like a pitiless Nero;

And the truculent slave may lustily rave
In praise of his maculate hero;
But the tyrant will quail when the Judge shall decide,
And the right will prevail, at the turn of the tide.
—George Whitman, D. D., in Chicago Standard.

THE CANTATA LAST NIGHT.

2 God shield you with a wall of fire,
With holy zeal your hearts inspire,
Bid raging winds their fury cease,
And calm the savage breast to peace.

3 And when our labours all are o'er,
Then may we meet to part no more—Meet, with the ransomed throng to fall,
And crown the Saviour Lord of all.
Amen.

NO. 6. THE REPORT OF THE WATCH.

Sunday Nig'

And the same evening came soldiers of the watch into the city, and showed the chief priests all the things that were done.

And when they were assembled with the elders, they gave large money to the soldiers, saying unto them:

"Say ye that His disciples came by night, while we slept,—and stole Him away."

And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him,—and secure you.

So they took the money, and did as they were taught.

NO. 7. THE QUESTIONING OF SIMON PETER.

SOPRANO SOLO.

And many times appeared Jesus unto His disciples; being seen of them forty days: speaking of things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

THE WOMEN.
And the third time that Jesus showed Himself, He said unto Simon Peter.

THE WORDS OF JESUS.
Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these.

PETER SAID.
Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love
Thee!

THE WORDS OF JESUS.
Feed my lambs!

THE WOMEN.
Then said He unto him again the second time:

THE WORDS OF JESUS.
Simon, Son of Jonas, lovest thou
me?

PETER SAID.
Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love Thee!

THE WORDS OF JESUS.
Feed my sheep!

THE WOMEN.
Then said He to him again the third time:

THE WORDS OF JESUS.
Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou
me!

THE WOMEN.
Then was Peter grieved, because He said to him the third time, "lov-est thou me?" and he said unto him:

PETER SAID.
Lord, Thou knowest all things.
Thou knowest that I love Thee!

THE WORDS OF JESUS.
Feed my sheep, and follow me.

TUNE—"DUKE STREET."

Melody by JOHN HATTON.
CHOIR AND CONGREGATION.

Yea, we will strive to follow Thee,
Grant, of Thy grace, such bounteous store,

That we, in perfect unity,
May follow Thee forevermore.

Yea, we will strive to follow Thee,
Thou who hast washed our sins
away,

Shalt, from the grave, our souls set free,

To rise to Thine unending day.
NO. 8. THE ASCENSION.

ALTO SOLO.

And He led them out as far as Bethany; and there He lifted up His hands, and blessed them.

And while they beheld He was parted from them, and was carried up into heaven, and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

BARITONE SOLO.
This is he who came out of Edom!

With dyed garments from Bozrah!
Evermore glorious in His apparel!
Travelling in the greatness of his
strength!

NO. 9. EPILOGUE AND FINALE.
Text paraphrased from MILTON.

So to the heaven of heavens did he ascend,

With victory—in triumph through the air,

Entering into glory to assume His scat
at God's right hand,

Thence shall He come, when time shall be no more,

To judge both the quick and the dead,
And to reward the faithful.

Meantime, the multitude of angels with a shout,—loud as from numbers without number—sweet as from voices blest—

Proclaimed their joy!
This is He whom came out of Edom!

He who hath led captivity captive!
Hosanna in the Highest!

Heaven rang with jubilee, and loud hosannas filled the eternal regions.

Hail! Son of the Most High!
Hail! Heir of all worlds,
All-hail!

"ST. CUTHBERT."
Tune by REV. J. B. DYKES, 1861.

Words by HARRIET AUBER, 1829.

Our blest Redeemer, ere He breathe
His tender, last farewell,

A Guide, a Comforter bequeathed
With us to dwell.

And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,

And every thought of holiness,
Are His alone. Amen.

A Wife Says:

"We have four children. With the first three I suffered almost unbearable pains from 12 to 14 hours, and had to be placed under the influence of chloroform. I used three bottles of Mother's Friend before our last child came, which is a strong, fat and healthy boy, doing my housework up to within two hours of birth, and suffered but a few hard pains. This lim-ment is the grandest remedy ever made."

Mother's Friend

will do for every woman what it did for the Minnesota mother who writes the above letter. Not to use it during pregnancy is a mistake to be paid for in pain and suffering.
Mother's Friend equips the patient with a strong body and clear intellect, which in turn are imparted to the child. It relaxes the muscles and allows them to expand. It relieves morning sickness and nervousness.
It puts all the organs concerned in perfect condition for the final hour, so that the actual labor is short and practically painless. Danger of rising or hard breaths is altogether avoided, and recovery is merely a matter of a few days.

Druggists sell Mother's Friend for $1 a bottle.

The Shirt Waist on the Mail Carriers.

Durham Sun.

According to an order recently issued by the Postmaster-General, the mail carriers of the various cities, employing uniform carriers, will wear no coats during the hot summer, now approaching.

The uniform will consist of a gray blouse, turn down collar, lack tie, and a neat belt will supercede the regulation suspenders.

We are sure that if the order is carried out in Durham during the summer months, John Kirkland and the rest of the mail carriers of our city will hail the change with delight. During the hottest days of summer we have seen them on their rounds puffing and blowing like porpoises. Why such an order has not been issued before, we cannot see.

CAUGHT A DREADFUL COLD.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M.
Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

RHEUMATISM | CATARRH — DIS EASES CURED BY B. B. B.
It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.
For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

W. C. T. U. DEPARTMENT.

[CONDUCTED BY THE LOCAL UNION.]

Among the traditions of the Jews there is a parable which relates that one day Noah had a visitor. This visitor was Satan and before he dined with Noah he commanded that there be slain a lamb, a lion, a pig and an ape. When they were brought before him he taught Noah that before wine is in a man he is as quiet and harmless as a lamb, when drinks moderately he is like a lion, when he drinks like a sot he is as low and beastly as a pig, but after any further excess he is like an ape that senselessly chatters and jabbars.

In a recent editorial the Raleigh News and Observer gives some startling statistics. It states that during the year 1900 the American people paid $1,228,674,625 for drinks; of that sum $1,059,563,787 went for alcoholic drinks; $125,789,530 for coffee; $37,312,608 for tea; and $6,000,000 for cocoa. Of the alcoholic drinks 50 per cent. was for beer, 30 per cent for whiskey, and other spirits, and 6 per cent for wine and other forms of alcoholic stimulants.

If North Carolinians consume the average, and it is supposed that they do, the State expends $32,340,000, or $15.17 per capita, yearly for intoxicating drinks. Against this vast sum put the $2,000,000 which the State expends annually for education. Think of it. Is it any wonder that for so many years past North Carolina had the reputation of being the most illiterate state in the Union? Isn't it time that something was being done?

The editorial states however, that drinking is on the decrease. From 1891 to 1900 the consumption of spirits fell from 1.43 per capita to 1.27 per capita. Beer, however, increased from 15.31 to 16.01.

Temperance sentiment is certainly growing, slowly but surely.

A Most Remarkable Accident Near Fayetteville.

Fayetteville Observer.

One of the most remarkable accidents that ever occurred in the history of railroading took place about a mile north of this city this morning.

Northbound Vestibule train No. 28, A. C. L., pulled out of the station here about 2 o'clock on regular schedule time, and had almost reached the Cape Fear River bridge, when suddenly and without the slightest warning, both driving wheels of the enormous engine broke and rolled down each side of the embankment. The two steel rails also dropped. Engineer Rankin took in the situation at once, strange as it was, and brought the train to a standstill so quickly that no other part of train was wrecked, and the passengers hardly knew there had been a wreck.

It was two hours before the wrecked engine, which remained on the track, was gotten off and another substituted, and the train proceeded.

At the 11 o'clock service at Grace M. P. church tomorrow morning the choir will sing again the Easter music which was used last Sunday.
